Around the State.....

Rev. Terry Neal, pastor of First Church in Hollywood, has signed a contract with Publish America to have his second children's adventure story book published. The Find It Club and the Prankster is a story about a middle school student who changes schools because his father changed jobs. Chris runs into the school bully his first day of school. Chris learns about forgiveness and Vic, the school bully, learns about being forgiven. The Find It Club and the Prankster should be available for purchase online this fall from www.PublishAmerica.com

Pastor Neal says, "I have found that the story of Christ can get into homes where I might not be invited by being shared in story books. Already two homes of atheists have been changed by the message of Christ in The Find It Club that was published in August 2007. My family and I were invited to conduct the funeral of a new born baby that died shortly after her birth. Her parents were confessed atheists. After reading The Find It Club, the family reconsidered their stance on God and Christ. God will use whatever we offer Him."

Pastor Neal asked an agnostic to proof read The Find It Club and the Prankster. The story touched his heart. He told Pastor Neal, "I really liked the second half of your story. I like the idea of beginning again."

Please pray that God will bless His message in both of these books.

Terry is working now on his third book, The Find It Club and the Cross. He hopes to have it ready for publishing next Spring.

Jacksonville Pastor and Church Celebrate Adoption

Dean Olson, Senior Pastor of University Boulevard Chapel in Jacksonville, along with his family traveled to Hanoi, Vietnam two weeks ago to receive their adopted daughter, Anna Grace. The Olsons will be returning to the United States on Friday, July 11. UBC members are excited about this new addition to their family. The church has waited in anticipation, along with Dean, Stacey and Allie, for Anna to come home for over a year. God has been incredibly good to the Olson family and UBC is happy this family is here during this important and joyous time.
